In response to the changing needs of our Coast Guard family during this uncertain time, Coast Guard Mutual Assistance (CGMA) has established a temporary supplemental education grant (SEG-COVID19) to help offset the cost of home schooling and remote learning.

What it is:

Temporary expansion of the Supplemental Education Grant (SEG) program for elementary and high school students impacted by school closures due to COVID-19.

Provides up to a $500 grant per client family in grant for school supplies (paper, pens, printer ink, learning software, etc) for their children in primary or secondary school.

Who is eligible?

All CGMA clients (active, reservists, civilian employees, auxiliarists, etc) with elementary or high school aged children.

Eligible purchases are ‘perishable’ supplies such as paper, pens, printer ink, scotch tape, notebooks, etc. Also included is the purchase of books, learning software, educational software, software exercise books (math, vocabulary, etc) memberships to virtual museums, etc.

It does NOT include electronics such as computers, tablets or calculators, or other ‘non-perishable’ items.

Receipts must be specific as to what was purchased, and must be dated between 1 February 2020 and 1 June 2020. All applications must be submitted by 30 June 2020.

See your CGMA representative for more information.
